Life Guards Are Deputized To Halt "Beaching"

Hampton Beach, a popular summer resort for these many years, has always boasted of its high standards. Police Chief John Malek, in an attempt to uphold these standards, is taking action to eliminate what is commonly termed, "beaching". Already, arrests have been made due to the ill mannered conduct of young people on the beach. The lifeguards have assumed additional duties in striving to put a stop to "beaching" and the guards have been sworn in as special officers by Chief Malek.

The moral standards of Hampton Beach must be upheld and serious measures are being adopted by Police Chief John Malek and his men to retain these standards.

Surprise

Shortly after 11 o'clock last Thursday evening, just as Mr. and Mrs. Al Randall were closing up their department store on Ocean Boulevard, a cream colored station wagon drove up in front of the store bedecked with a huge red ribbon.

The handsome 1947 model, equipped with all the latest gadgets, was a present for Mrs. Randall from her adoring husband on the occasion of their seventh wedding anniversary.

Needless to say Mrs. Randall was overcome with surprise, but recuperated later at a dinner party for twelve friends at the Frolics.

Police Continue Probe Of Munsey Restaurant Break

Police Chief John Malek together with State and local Police are still investigating the break which occurred in Munsey's Restaurant, Ocean boulevard on Sunday night, July 27th. By using the process of elimination in tracing the fingerprints found at the scene of the theft, police officials hope to find the solution to the case as quickly as possible. Chief Malek is working with the authorities in Concord, N. H., on the case which concerns a theft of $1,000 in cash and $368 in endorsed checks from the popular Hampton Beach restaurant.

Vocalists Win Top Prizes In Amateur Contest

After due deliberation, the judges in Wednesday night's Amateur Contest chose the following winners out of the ten entrants in the contest. First prize was awarded to: Jerry Lonergan, 24, 69 Sawyer avenue, Dorchester, Mass., for his vocal rendition of a romantic melody, including "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" and "I Love You Truly". Jerry is a familiar figure at Happy Hampton as he has been a regular summer visitor for a number of years.

Ten-year-old Paul Damour, of Boar's Head received second prize. Paul sang and danced to "Dear Old Jacqueline Ricard 18 of Lowell, Mass., and Marion Barnett, 19, of East Providence, R. I., were the recipients of the third prize which was divided as the judges decided that both Miss Ricard and Miss Barnett deserved a prize. Miss Ricard (Continued on Page Nine)

The Cover Girl Contest, sponsored annually by the Beachcomber, will be postponed one week this summer to enable more contestants to enter this popular event, the winner of which will also be named Queen of Hampton Beach's Carnival Week which opens Sunday, August 31.

Over $150 worth of prizes will be awarded the winner of the contest in addition to having her picture appear on the front page of the Beachcomber in the issue of August 28 and being named 1947 Carnival Queen.

The postponement of the contest from August 14 to August 21 was arranged in cooperation with the Hampton Beach Chamber of Commerce officials in order to tie the contest in more closely with the Carnival week program.

The judging will now take place Thursday afternoon, August 21 at 3 o'clock in the bandstand with the contest open to all young ladies, sixteen years of age or over who are residents of Hampton or Hampton Beach or who are summer residents.

Noted Pastors At No. Hampton, Rye Beach Churches

Two well known clergymen, who for a number of years have occupied pulpits at St. Andrews-By-the-Sea and nearby Union chapel, Little Boars Head, on the first Sunday in August, again supplied their respective pulpits Sunday.

Rt. Rev. John T. Dallas of Concord, Episcopal bishop of New Hampshire, paid his annual visit to St. Andrews and a special offering was taken for the work of the New Hampshire diocese. At Union chapel Dr. Samuel A. Eliot of Cambridge, minister-emeritus of the Arlington Street church in Boston, preached and also officiated at a christening ceremony after the close of the service.

Dr. Eliot, 85, and son of Dr. Charles M. Eliot, former president of Harvard university, was a dinner guest of former Gov. and Mrs. Alvan T. Fuller at their estate, Runnymede By-the-Sea, at Little Boars Head. Bishop Dallas was entertained at dinner at the Hotel Farragut.

In the afternoon at 4 there was a garden party at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Wallis D. Walker on South road at which both the distinguished clergymen were guests. In the evening Dr. Eliot was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Higgins at their Little Boars Head home.

CONTEST —

residents or vacationists at the beach.
 Application blanks may be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce office and may be returned there or sent directly to the Beachcomber office, Hampton. The winner of the contest will not be exploited in any way, other than to have her picture appear on the cover of the Beachcomber and at the same time be selected as Queen of the Carnival.

Cash prizes to be awarded are $15 to the winner and $10 and $5 to the runner ups. The list of valuable prizes which will also be awarded the Cover Girl of 1947 will include: a shampoo and wave at Rene's Beauty Shoppe on the Casino; a beautiful set of bookends from the Li-ro-lu Shoppe; $10 in bowling at the Ferncroft Bowling Alleys; a lovely cardigan sweater from the Casino Gift Shoppe; jewelry from Ernie Desautels in Playland; a beautiful Yardley compact from Elsie's Specialty Shop; a Max Factor cosmetic set at Donovan and Fallon's Drug Store; a silhouette by Lillian G. Clarke; a gorgeous gold compact from the Penny Arcade on the Casino; $5 in merchandise at the Standish Gift Shop; a lovely silver bracelet at Randall's Department Store; and a gold necklace, earrings, and bracelet set at Dudley's Gift Shop.

The Chamber of Commerce committee headed by Mr. John Dineen has not as yet worked out the details surrounding the crowning of the Cover Girl as Queen of the Carnival, but it will be carried out with the usual splendor that surrounds the beach's Carnival Week activities.

All young lovelies of this community are urged to enter the contest this week — the more entries, the more fun for all. Many valuable gifts await the Cover Girl of '47, so get that application today at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Beach Notes

Mr. Henry Dupuis, accompanied by Dave Clemons, left from the Hampton Airport, Tuesday, at 1:00 P. M., for St. Petersburg, Fla., on a 10-day business trip. Word was received from them, last night, that they had arrived in Washington, D. C., at 6:00 P. M. They are flying in one of the Airport's planes.

SALE ANNOUNCED

The sale of three houses at 37 King's Highway by Mrs. Mary Belle Crowley to Robert S. Hedlund of Holden, Mass., is reported by the office of Victor W. Porter, local realtor.

Also sale of land on Bon Air Ave., Surfside Park by Mrs. S. E. Stanton to Thomas D. Kenna of Arlington, and sale of land on Arcadia Ave., by Mrs. Rose M. Dumas to Robert S. Hedlund.

Mr. Porter's opinion is that property values at the beach and in the village will remain at present levels for at least another year, especially as hundreds of people are looking for homes and beach property in Hampton.
